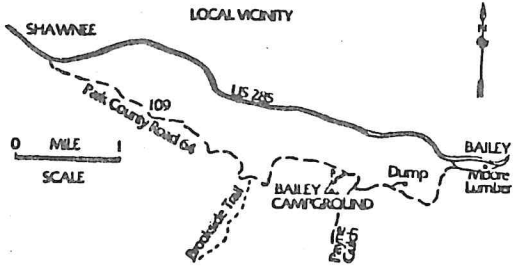
rites. It is, after all, always a good idea to propitiate the Gods! The wenches of the Tavern will be serving a Vulgar (but tasty) feast on Saturday night consisting of stew, sausages, bread & butter, cheeses, fresh fruits & short cakes for the paltry cost of $3.50 per person. Sunday night all are invited to bring their own dinners to the Tavern, and on Monday morning (before the final fight) there will be a Stone Breakfast there. (Bring something interesting, & preferably decadent, to share.) The Tavern will be serving pop & juice, & munchies all day; & beer & wine coolers after the party truce is declared. Site fee is $5.00 for the weekend. Please send feast reservations (with payment) to Morrigan (3135 Arnett St. #302, Boulder, CO 80302) prior to June 24th. (I'm mainly asking for this so that we know how many people are coming & thus how much beer/wine to buy. Remember Colorado is uncivilized & the liquor stores are closed on Sundays. We wouldn't want to run out!) Rules: Don't bring your "hats", your peerages or your children: this event is rated "R". Don't use the name of any character in the books: you can be anybody you like, but the Autocrats have dibs on all the names. Do peace-tie all live steel. Do plan to party, fight, drink, dance, play & have a good time. (Drums are OK, but we will probably want to sleep sometime.)

Directions: From any direction, take I-25 into Denver. Go west on Hwy 285 (which is Hampden in town) until you get to the town of Bailey (approximately 1 hour). Turn left at Moore Lumber. (This is Hwy 64, but the Moore Lumber sign on the South side of the road is much easier to see.) Follow the road to the fork & take the south (left) fork about 2 miles on a well maintained dirt road. The campground is also on the South side. There will be signs once you reach Bailey. Other stuff: The campground features grass, trees, tables & one hand operated pump for drinking water, so you might want to bring some of your own. We may or may not be able to have open fires depending on the fire danger, so you may want to bring your Coleman stoves. Don't forget your sunscreen. & as I said, you never know what might catch the eye of a god/dess! Overall autocrat: Morrigan 303-443-8853; Fighting autocrat: Alexandre 303-442-0959

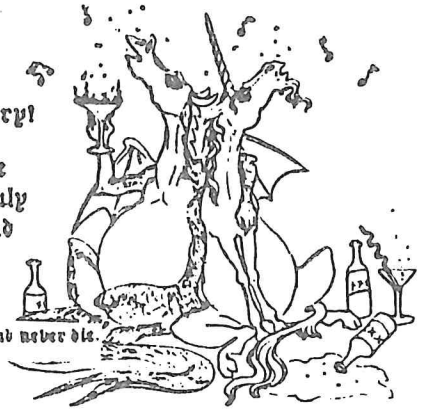


All you can eat. All you can drink.
All you can fight. All you can party.
All you can....

Fight to control the city of Sanctuary!

Vulgar Unicorn II

– Caerthe 4th of July Weekend



Fight all day. Party all night. Never grow old and never die.

Things are looking more dismal than usual in this sleazy little town at the edge of nowhere: the hell-hole of the Rankan empire has just gotten worse. The denizens of the Maze, the Hawkmasks, and the Stepsons have all decided that they want to rule this town. (No one has really figured out why.) All the good citizens (if you can use that phrase about anyone who lives here) have locked themselves in their houses, so there won't be any at this event. But you're invited! Someone will win control of SANCTUARY and you can help decide the outcome, 4th of July weekend, at the Bailey Group Campground, about 1 hour outside of Caerthe (directions follow). Maze Dwellers, Hawkmasks, & Stepsons - each a team consisting of rattan & rapier fighters, & non-combatants - will be formed at the site (either Friday night for early arrivals, or Saturday morning). Ultimate control of the city must be won by an entire team. Leaders can use any recruiting method (bribery anyone?) they may wish. All rules (& the schedule such as it is) will be explained Saturday morning at 10 AM, & shortly thereafter, the fighting will begin. There will be lots (& lots & lots) of fighting, & lots of activities (providing you call poisonings & assassinations activities) for the non-combatants as well. All the individual fights, melees & non-com activities will contribute to a group's overall points, which will add up to additional benefits to be granted by the Gods (Morrigan as Eshi & Alexandre as Vashanka: who, it might be noted, also take bribes offerings) at the final Grand Melee on Monday morning. About 6 PM each day (or after the final combat) a "party" truce will be declared. After that time, no battle points can be earned (at least not in the usual ways). Instead Sanctuary's ever changing & challanging night life will begin. All's fair at the Tavern -- & you never know but that the bawdy or war song you sing, or the tavern brawl you win (with rubber or boffer daggers only) may catch the eye of the Gods -- & it may be that extra point they grant which puts you group in control! In addition, since neither of these Gods is know for their celibacy, we thought a wet chemise contest (for the ladies) & a wet buns contest (for the men) might be appropriate

St. Sebastian III

Be it known that the Canton of Hawk's Hollow will be hosting the third annual Saint Sebastian archery tournament on July 23-24 AS XXIII. We will also be running a fencing list and having war maneuvers.

The archery tournament will consist of a qualifying round on Saturday and the top archers will shoot a final round on Sunday. There will be a prize for the top shooters and for the top lady archers. The qualifying round will consist of a Royal Round, and the final round will be shot with I.K.A.C. rules with the scores sent to the national coordinator.

While this is going on the fighters will be conducting war maneuvers. There will be an open field battle and a resurrection battle. Any fighting units are invited to come as well as individual fighters.

The site is 58 miles southwest of Denver near Jefferson, CO. The elevation is 9500 ft and there is no water. There is shade but participants might want to bring their own anyway. Bring lots of water and food (we aren't fixing a feast).

On Saturday night there will be a non-competitive bardic circle for those who still have energy.

All this fun and the mountians for a site of $5.00 can be had until July 14, by writing myself and enclosing a check made out to:

THE SILK ROUTE CULTURES LIVE AGAIN

A new dance style was introduced to the area at the May Coronation Celebration in Unser Hafen. With bells on her wrists and a twinkle in her eye, Chaylay bounced into the SCA scene.

Chaylay Alavi (CHAY-LAY AY-LUH-VI) and musicians are available for performance of Central Asian (Uzbek and Tajik) and Persian dances in the Denver-Fort Collins Area. These dances are part of the heritage of the old Silk Route cultures, flavored by the present-day cultures of Russia, China, Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iran. For many centuries, this area of the world was virtually inaccessible to modern influence and its culture has remained much the same over the centuries. They promote an image of the feminine that is distinctly oriental--delicate and sweet, dramatic and exciting, or mysteriously unattainable.

Also available by special arrangement is Emiko Nakamura of Seattle. She is very interested in coming to share her expertise in an amazing variety of dance styles: Perisan, Afghan, Caucasus, Kirgiz, Tajik and Uzbek. As a graduate of the Novikof Academy of Russian Ballet, Emiko has a solid background in dance technique.

As a society member, Chaylay is glad to talk about her favorite subject with any of your groups. Chaylay also has a special "Arm Articulation" workshop which dancers, and non-dancers will find helpful. She would also very much like to arrange to bring Emiko to the area in the Fall of 1988. Contact her at (303)223-6494 or write JOYFUL DANCER, 2519 Sunstone Dr., Fort Collins, CO 80525.

FIGHTER PRACTICE PLUS

GREETINGS.

We, Master Odan and Lady Alianna, will be hosting an unofficial fighter practice, armoring help, etc., at our place on the following Sundays at 2:00 PM: May 22, June 12, June 19, July 10, July 17, July 24, and July 31. (Dates in July are subject to change.)

If you wish to practice rattan, fencing or shinai, work on armor, costuming, needlework, or just have fun, come join us. If you are a newcomer and wish to meet a few people on an informal basis, you are more than welcome. The only request we have is to have fun. We realize we are a distance from Caerthe but hope to see many of you in spite of that.
